

The most demanding tests to verify the excellent results of our treatments are carried out in this kiln.

We can program temperature rises of up to 1350°C in 96-hour cycles, with a temperature maintenance of one week and having the rollers in rotation.

In our Research & Development Center, we subject the products we manufacture through the most extreme tests.

Direct heat application by raising the kiln to 1000°C in 30 minutes